"WON'T HE DO IT!"

Her Story...

Keysha was a FAITHFUL charter member of the Emmanuel Baptist Church of Jesus Christ under the leadership of the late Dr. R.D. Carrington, Sr. She accepted Christ and was baptized as a teenager by her older brother Rev. John Williams, Sr. When Emmanuel was organized, Keysha was a member of the youth choir, Rapture. As a young adult, she continued serving as a Sanctuary Choir member, an Usher, nursery worker, and Children's Choir director. Before her departure, Keysha could still be found working with our Children and Youth Ushers as they served on the third Sunday.

Keysha enjoyed crafting as a hobby and was also a member of the Junior Bowling League at Gateway Lanes, where she earned numerous trophies. Keysha attended Martin Elementary, Lincoln Junior High and was a proud, proud graduate of the 1990 Class of Beaumont Central High School, where she was a member of the Auxiliary Flag/Rifle Corps. She attended L.I.T for Childcare Technology and received a Massage Therapy Certificate in 2012 from Vista College. Her love for jewelry lead her to become a Paparazzi Jewelry Consultant and her gift of creativity sparked her most recent interest of making aromatherapy bath jars.

Keysha began her Educational Profession with Arlington ISD where she touched many lives in the Special Education Department before returning back home to Beaumont. She continued her vocational career with BISS as a Paraprofessional working at Bingman HeadStart, Marshall Middle School, Martin and Amelia Elementary schools. Keysha's love for serving others extended beyond the classroom. She worked alongside her sister's catering company Simply Delicious Catering and Bettie Jean's Homestyle Cooking. She also enjoyed volunteering in the concession stand for her brother's production company the Jonathan Williams Center for the Performing Arts.

Keysha enjoyed socializing and giving back to her community as a member of the Divine Divas, a culturally diverse, faith-based networking organization, where she served as the Sergeant at Arms from 2012 - 2013.

Keysha Necole was the mother of three beautiful children, Roddrick, Tatyana and Tiara. She was also the youngest of eight (8) siblings born to the late Ulysses S. Williams, Sr. and Bettie Dorsey Williams. Her siblings are Ulysses S. Williams, Jr. (Georgia), Bert Williams (Robin), Jonathan Williams, Phillip Williams (Latricia), Willie Williams, John Williams, Sr. (Lori), and Bettina Williams - Evans (Oscar). She was also the foster sister to Gwendolyn Foster, the late Leroy Dudley Edwards, and John Eugene, Jr. (Patricia). Keysha's memory will forever be cherished by her god brother and sister Gary and Stephanie Yokum, her nephews, nieces, cousins and forever friends.

A Reflection of Our Love

Mama you are missed dearly. We never thought in a million years you would leave us so soon. Oh how we wish you were still here with us but we are assured God has you home with Him in a far better place. You were a blessing to us from the day we took our first breath, our first step and each time we walked across the stage to graduate. You were our biggest cheerleader and for that we celebrate your life today with family and friends. Mama you instilled in us the strength to keep pushing forward and always put God first and we will, as we honor your memory. Your name and love will forever live in our hearts. So for now it's not goodbye, but see you later!

Until we meet again,
Roddrick, Taty and Ti-Ti
